

I am very concerned about the loss of life and damage to vehicles from the non-matching bumper heights between passenger cars and all other vehicles. I propose that all on the road vehicles share a common bumper height. This includes SUV's, trucks, buses and tractors. I believe this is a much more cost effective method of saving lives than side air bags.